Evidence-Based Decision Making (EBDM)	The practice of using research findings to inform and guide decisions across the justice system. (http://info.nicic.gov/ebdm/)		All
Municipal Court	Courts that have exclusive jurisdiction over ordinance violations. If a municipality does not have a municipal court, ordinance violations are heard in circuit court. Cities, villages and towns are authorized to establish municipal courts.		All
Circuit Court	Courts that have original jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters within the state, including probate, juvenile, and traffic matters, as well as civil and criminal jury trials. The Wisconsin circuit courts are the state's trial courts.		All
Evidence-Based Practices (EBP)	Approaches and interventions that research has demonstrated to have effective, measurable outcomes such as reducing recidivism or improving community safety.		All
Law Enforcement Response
In custody	When an individual is being detained by law enforcement, the court, or another legal entity and is not free to leave.	May or may not also constitute an arrest, depending on circumstances	LE
Arrest	Act of detaining a person in legal custody in response to a charge that the person committed an offense in a particular jurisdiction. This includes notification of charges and date and time to appear in court or for processing such as by summons, order-in or citation (when issued by an officer). Arrests are typically not documented until the point of booking or issuance of a citation or summons.	Includes state statutes violations, ordinances that could be criminal, and citations that are criminal. Arrests do not include referrals from LE to the DA to review for potential charges without a booking or citation being issued directly to the individual (until the person is fingerprinted as part of the initial appearance) and warrants that have not resulted in an arrest.	LE
Booking	The process of collecting data to detain an individual into custody for criminal or non-criminal offenses or holds. Bookings for criminal offenses involve the collection of photographs, fingerprints, and demographic information. Adapted from Wisc. Stats. 165.83(2).	Does not include cite and release that occurs prior to booking.	LE

Summons	A command for a defendant to appear in court at a certain time and place that may be issued by a district attorney in lieu of requesting the issuance of a warrant (Adapted from Wisc. Stats. 968.04(3)(b)).
Citation	A directive, issued by a law enforcement officer, that a person appear in court and answer charges or pay a fine. The citation may direct the individual to appear in court at a later date or provide notice to the accused that they will be notified of a future court date. (Wisc. Statute 968.085)	Wisc. Statute 968.085 designates that a citation is to answer criminal charges, but for this purpose citations can be for criminal, non-criminal traffic, or ordinance violations and should be counted separately. Citations can be issued before (in lieu of) or after arrest. forfeiture eg parking ticket. regulatory-dnr/epa?	LE
Cite and Release (Citation in lieu of arrest)	A written order, in lieu of a warrantless arrest, that is issued by a law enforcement officer or other authorized official, requiring a person to appear in a designated court or governmental office at a specified time and date (NCSL).		LE
Crime	A crime is conduct which is prohibited by state law and punishable by fine or imprisonment or both. Conduct punishable only by a forfeiture is not a crime. (Wisc. Stat. 939.12)		LE
Offense	An act that is defined as a felony or misdemeanor by Wisconsin state statute or a violation of a city, county, village or town ordinance. Wisc. Stat. 165.83(1)(c)3.		LE

Call for service	A request for assistance within a law enforcement agency's jurisdiction to which a police employee responds and takes action or -is initiated by police.	Typically includes calls coming in through 9-1-1 or a non-emergency line to a law enforcement agency and can include responses to both criminal and non-criminal events. Should include all incoming calls for service, regardless of whether an officer is dispatched to the scene. Should be further subdivided into "citizen-generated" and officer-initiated activity, as well as calls that do and do not result in an officer being dispatched vs being resolved in another way.	LE
Pre-Arrest Diversion	Discretion exercised by a law enforcement officer when probable cause exists that a person committed an offense, but gives the individual an alternate disposition, such as directly referring the individual to a diversion program, in lieu of a formal arrest. Should be based on an assessment of risk of reoffending and a component of education/programming vs arrest. If the individual satisfactorily completes the diversion program, the matter is not referred to the DA for prosecution and is closed. If the individual does not satisfactorily complete the program, the individual is referred for prosecution.	Usually part of some type of program intended to divert offenders from the traditional criminal justice system.	LE
Emergency Detention	Provides short-term detention at an authorized treatment facility for the purpose of assessing whether an individual is mentally ill, drug dependent, or developmentally disabled and poses a substantial risk of harm to themselves or others or is unable to satisfy their basic needs for nourishment, medical care, shelter, or safety without prompt and adequate treatment, and are reasonably believed to be unable or unwilling to cooperate with voluntary treatment. Adapted from Wisc. Stat. 51.15.		LE

Law enforcement	The generic name for the activities of the agencies responsible for maintaining public order and enforcing the law, particularly the activities of prevention, detections, and investigation of crime and apprehension of criminals, while guaranteeing the personal rights of individuals are not infringed upon.		LE
Law enforcement agency	A governmental unit of one or more persons employed full time by the state or a political subdivision of the state for the purpose of preventing and detecting crime and enforcing state laws or local ordinances, employees of which unit are authorized to make arrests for crimes while acting within the scope of their authority. (Wisc. Stats. 165.83(1)(b))	Typically includes municipal police agencies, county sheriffs, some state and federal agencies. What should be included for the purpose of EBDM? Just municipal police and county sheriffs? Jurisdiction names by type	LE
Release	Discharge or setting free from custody, detention or confinement.	Need to break apart into DOC hold release, fine release, release from obligation by court order	LE
Communications	The function of an emergency response agency (such as law enforcement) that involves answering and responding to calls for service (e.g. 911) and assigning and monitoring units responding to the calls (dispatch function).		LE
Dispatcher	Civilian employee of an emergency response agency (such as law enforcement) who is responsible for dispatching and monitoring assignments to units using a computer aided dispatch system, radio, and/or telephone.		LE
9-1-1 Operator (Telecommunication Operator)	Civilian employee of an emergency response agency (such as law enforcement) who is responsible for answering emergency and non-emergency calls for service and transferring the call for dispatch response.		LE

Term	Definition	Notes on Measurement	Reviewer
Response time	Amount of elapsed time between when a citizen-generated call for police service is received and arrival of the first unit or officer on scene.	Usually starts with when a call is received, but can be inconsistent across jurisdictions. Does not include officer-generated calls for service or calls that do not involve dispatch of an officer to the scene. Priority level of call (low, med, or high) will change response times so response types are often segmented by priority.	LE
Stop	Temporary detention of an individual for investigation. To be legal, a stop must be based on reasonable suspicion to believe the individual has committed or is about to commit, some violation of the law.	Need to define whether this is vehicle, person, or both	LE
Arrest Warrant	A legal order to a law enforcement agency to arrest the person named in the order.		LE/DA/PD/ COURTS
Bench Warrant	A legal order to a law enforcement agency to arrest the person named in the order when a defendant or a witness fails to appear before the court as required, or violates a term of their bond or probation (adapted from Wisc. Stat. 968.09)		LE/DA/PD/ COURTS
Search Warrant	A legal order to a law enforcement agency that a specific location be searched.		LE/DA/PD/ COURTS
Probable cause	Reasonable belief that a criminal act occurred and was committed by the accused, based on the facts and information available.		LE/DA/PD/ COURTS
Crisis Intervention Team (CIT)	A community partnership, first-responder model composed of law enforcement, mental health professionals, advocates, mental health consumers and their families. The goal of the program is to help persons with mental disorders access medical treatment rather than place them in the criminal justice system due to illness related behaviors.		LE/DA/PD/ COURTS

WN - The performance of any of the following activities: detection, apprehension, detention, pretrial release, post-trial release, prosecution, adjudication, correctional supervision, or rehabilitation of accused persons or criminal offenders. The administration of justice includes criminal identification activities and the collection, storage and dissemination of criminal history record information.

DF-I think you could include the high level oversight of all the processes involved in the legislation and processes in the identification and passing of various laws, statutes, ordinances etc. in response to crime trends, world events and such. Administration denotes some type of overall action of checks and balances

DF-This could vary from community service officers (non-sworn), volunteers, street officers, tactical officers, undercover, detectives, PIOs, etc.

When all terms of a program have been met

DF-This could vary greatly among agencies. A good resource would be to check with Dispatch Centers to see how they classify calls for service. This will take into consideration the response levels and timeliness required for specific calls.

The number of defendants released by court-ordered release type (personal recognizance, conditional supervision, unsecured bond)

When all terms of probation/parole have been met

Housing for multiple occupants is provided, either in the form of an apartment or a facility, with access to congregate living areas and a shared kitchens. The contractor supplies all furnishings, necessary household supplies, a food supply for one week, and staff providing supervision via random on-site inspections. Offenders have rules that must be followed, program services to be attended, and employment requirements. This differs from the typical Transitional Living Program as participation in program groups is required as a part of this program and provided off-site.

Treatment improves offenders' ability to deal with anger appropriately and reduce criminal justice involvement.

Offenders receive treatment for DV related convictions, which includes controlling and coercive behaviors that may include physical injury.

Emergency/Supplemental Housing is temporary, thirty day housing offered to offenders who have no appropriate residence and may be waiting for a residential program opening.

Provides employment training and assistance, vocational assessments and education services to help offenders find gainful employment. Community Services monitors offenders working in non-profit agencies to complete court-ordered community service hours.

The Family Connections Program is offered in Milwaukee only and enhances an offenders' ability to maintain significant relationships.

Introduces offenders to basic cognitive programming tools with the intent to reduce barriers prohibiting successful program participation
